

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions have illustrated the dangers caused by media consolidation.

If Sinclair is truly interested in educating the people of America regarding the candidates, then they should equally represent both sides of the debate. Why don't they broadcast "Fahrenheit 9/11" as well? The Republican Party would never allow that to be shown on national TV prior to the elections, why then is it fair to broadcast a program to sabotage the Democratic Campaign. The media's job is not to reflect personal opinion, but to be fair and unbiased.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
